

Honorary Conference Resolution #1-10

WHEREAS: PATRICIA ANN JOHNSON was born in Eagle Rock, California, on October 23, many years ago; and

WHEREAS: She married Clyde Johnson, a Los Angeles City firefighter 48 years ago and they soon started a family, which included Anita, Robert (Captain with CAL Fire) and Gunnar (Captain with CAL Fire); and

WHEREAS: PAT had a busy professional career of her own, a special education teacher for both Los Angeles Unified and Madera County School District; and

WHEREAS: After Clyde retired, PAT became a paid-call firefighter with the Madera County for 12 years, attended the National Fire Academy twice and joined CSFA in 1982; and

WHEREAS: PAT became very involved in CSFA, volunteering to serve as a Central Deputy and on the Resolutions Committee; and

WHEREAS: In 1991, she became the chair of the Resolutions Committee, a position she now shares with Dale Lintner; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED: That the California State Firefighters' Association, by unanimous consent of the entire assemblage, expresses heartfelt thanks by dedicating its eighty-eighth annual conference, held at the Holiday Inn on the Bay, in the city of San Diego, California, March 1st through 3rd, 2010, to PAT JOHNSON; and be it further

RESOLVED: That said conference should henceforth be known as the PAT JOHNSON CONFERENCE; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the presentation of a suitably prepared copy of this Resolution, signed by the President and Executive Director, be acted upon as the first order of business on March 1, 2010.